

Congratulations, Graduates!

On June 23rd, our 14 eighth-grade students will graduate and move on to high school. Thank you for the part that you have played in their lives at HPCA through financial donations, prayers, and volunteering. Please continue to keep them in your prayers as they move to the next stage of their lives.

Kayla

Kayla has attended HPCA since 1st grade and is planning to attend The Academy at Palumbo next year. She will miss all the great people at HPCA who have been like a family while she was growing up here. She feels that HPCA has motivated her academically to shoot for the stars and be the best she can be. After high school, she is definitely going to college, and would like to be a doctor.

Quinton

Quinton has been at HPCA since kindergarten. He is planning to attend Sankofa Freedom Academy Charter School. Quinton will miss the staff because he has known them for over half of his life and they've become like family. Quinton has learned all the books of the Bible and about how amazing God is. He is planning to go to college and become an actor or lawyer.

Ryan

Ryan has been with HPCA since kindergarten. He is looking forward to high school, but will miss HPCA, especially the teachers. He has learned a lot about God in his years at HPCA. He has mostly learned that God will always be with you, through good times and bad. He plans to go to college and play football, or study to be a lawyer.

Robert

This was Robert's first year at HPCA. Next year, he will attend Calvary Christian Academy. He feels prepared for high school because HPCA provided a good education and pushed him to do well in school. He will miss his friends and being able to have fun with the teachers. He has learned many new things about God through studying parables and learning new verses in chapel. He plans to go to college and become a lawyer.

Kourtney

Kourtney came to HPCA in seventh grade and will miss the teachers and the friends that she has made here. Her favorite memory of HPCA was her first day here when she met all her wonderful friends. She feels that HPCA has prepared her for high school by teaching her to study more. She has learned that God is always there, even if you can't see Him. She plans to go to college to get a good job.

Imonie

This was Imonie's first year at HPCA and she plans to attend WB Saul High School of Agricultural Sciences. She will miss her many new friends that she made in all different grades. She feels prepared for high school, especially with all the essays she has written at HPCA. She has learned many new things that she didn't know about God through weekly chapels and Bible class. She plans to go to college to be a pediatrician or veterinarian.

Heriberto

Heriberto came to HPCA in fifth grade and will be going to Esperanza Academy Charter High School next year. He will miss his teachers, friends, and computer class. He feels happy and hopeful about high school because HPCA has prepared him to know what to do. He has learned that God is sovereign, everlasting, sinless, and a light. He intends to go to college and become a veterinarian.

Randy

Randy has been at HPCA since Pre-Kindergarten and will be going to City Center Academy next year. He is thankful that HPCA helped guide him to an excellent high school. He will miss all of his friends at HPCA, the field trips, and many performances he was in throughout the years. The most memorable thing he has learned about God is that He is always with us. After high school, he plans to go to college to become a doctor.

William

William has been at HPCA since first grade. He will be attending International High School next year. He feels very prepared for high school because he was given many challenging, advanced assignments at HPCA. He will miss the teachers funny jokes. His favorite memory was moving from elementary to middle school. He has learned that God is forgiving, caring, and created everything, and that no one can do anything without Him.

Dominique

Dominique has been at HPCA since Pre-Kindergarten and will be attending Sankofa Freedom Academy Charter School. She will miss the teachers and students at HPCA. She is going to be very sad when she leaves because she grew up here. She believes that every day here is a new memory that she will try not to forget. She has learned that God will forgive her and always be there for her. She plans to attend college.

Daniela

Daniela has been at HPCA since kindergarten and plans to attend Esperanza Academy Charter High School next year. She feels prepared for high school because of how much her teachers at HPCA cared for her and invested in her education. At HPCA, she learned that she can do all things through Christ who gives her strength. She plans to pursue medical school and become an obstetrician.

Israel

Israel came to HPCA in Pre-Kindergarten and will be attending Esperanza Academy Charter High School. He will miss his teachers because they are amazing and great at what they do. He will also miss all his friends and says that he couldn't have asked for any better. He has learned that God loves him, no matter what. He plans to go to college and major in criminal justice.

Sierra

This was Sierra's first year at HPCA and she plans to attend Mercy Vocational High School next year. She feels that the high school readiness class has helped prepare her to better plan out her future. She will miss the many friends that she has made in different grades. At HPCA, she has learned that God is with her everywhere she goes. She plans to go to college, then get a great job in carpentry.

Aaron

Aaron has been at HPCA since sixth grade and is planning to attend International Christian High School. He is thankful for the time the teachers and principal have invested to help him prepare for high school. He feels that God has changed him over the past two years and has helped him be more open with people. After high school, he would like to open a car dealership.
