

Congratulations, Graduates!

On June 14th, our 12 eighth-grade students will graduate and move on to high school. Thank you for the part that you played in their lives at HPCA through financial donations, prayers, and volunteering. Please continue to keep them in your prayers as they move to the next stage of their lives.

Antonio

Antonio has been at HPCA since Pre-K and will be attending Archbishop Ryan High School. He is looking forward to the new experience of being in a big school. He enjoyed how the students and teachers are like family at HPCA. He plans to attend Temple University and become either a pitcher for the Boston Red Sox or the owner of a gym.

Cecily

Cecily has been at HPCA since 7th grade. She has learned that God is always there, even when you might not believe it. In the fall, she will be attending Esperanza Academy and is looking forward to learning more about Hispanic history. She plans to go to college to study forensic science and be a homicide detective.

Doreanna

Doreanna has been at HPCA since 6th grade and will miss the staff and how they are helpful and caring. She has learned to work hard because it pays off. In the fall, she will attend Esperanza Academy and plans to go to University of Connecticut to study forensic science.

Gloria

Gloria started at HPCA in the 7th grade and appreciates how everyone made her feel welcomed and like she had been here for a thousand years. Gloria is unsure of her plans for high school, but wishes to work with children as a child psychologist or pediatrician in the future.

Jada

Jada has been at HPCA since 3rd grade and has loved getting to connect with each of the teachers personally. At HPCA, she has learned that God is always with you. In the fall, she will be attending Philadelphia High School for Creative and Performing Arts to work on her writing skills. She plans to go to college and become a veterinarian.

Janiza

Janiza has been at HPCA since 1st grade and will be attending Bodine High School. She has enjoyed how the challenging curriculum at HPCA has pushed her to think more. She will miss HPCA because it's like her home. After high school, she wishes to attend Stanford University to become a child psychologist or accountant.

Justin

Justin has been at HPCA since Pre-K and will miss the family relationships that exist between teachers and students. HPCA has taught him to try his hardest to succeed. He will be attending Northeast Magnet High School. He wishes to attend Penn State University and major in astrophysics.

Krystal

Krystal has attended HPCA since 5th grade and loves how united everyone is and how everybody knows each other. She has enjoyed being able to freely express her faith at HPCA. After a year of homeschooling, she plans to go to Esperanza Academy then Virginia University to study forensic science or criminal law.

Miriam

Miriam has attended HPCA since Kindergarten. She has learned how important friendships are and what it means to love your neighbor. She will be attending Esperanza Academy and wants to attend Eastern University because it is a Christian School. She would like to join the Army and be able to serve our country.

Nayeze

Nayeze has attended HPCA since Pre-K and will be attending Central High School. This year, he has enjoyed being a part of the math club and chess club. He will miss the family environment at HPCA. After high school, he plans to attend college to become an actuary.

Samara

Samara has been at HPCA since Pre-K and will miss how small it is and how everyone knows each other. She has learned that it is important to love your neighbor. In the fall, she will attend Franklin Towne Charter. She would like to go to West Chester University or Univ. of N. Carolina and work with animals in the future.

Tisha

Tisha has been at HPCA since Pre-K and has enjoyed getting to be fun and silly with the other students and being a part of the basketball and soccer teams. At HPCA, she has learned that God is always there. In the fall, Tisha will be attending High School of the Future. She would like to attend college and wishes to become a mortician.
