

Congratulations, Graduates!

On June 17th, our 13 eighth-grade students will graduate and move on to high school. Thank you for the part that you have played in their lives at HPCA through financial donations, prayers, and volunteering. Please continue to keep them in your prayers as they move to the next stage of their lives.

Alena

Alena has been at HPCA since 5th grade and will attend Northeast Magnet. She will miss the friendly Christian environment at HPCA and the support she received. She learned that God is always with you and for you. She aspires to either become an architect or police officer.

Amelia

Amelia started at HPCA in 1st grade and she will miss her close relationships with teachers and other students. She feels prepared for the future because she has learned that God will always help you, even during struggles. Amelia wishes to attend Penn State to become an orthopedic surgeon.

Angel

Angel has attended HPCA since 5th grade and will attend Tacony Academy Charter School. He will miss the staff at HPCA and Theme Week, when everybody dresses crazy. He feels that HPCA helped him grow in his faith and taught him to be strong in the Lord. He wishes to join the army, and then attend college to study engineering.

Anjil

Anjil started at HPCA in the 5th grade and will attend Franklin Towne Charter High School. She has grown in her knowledge of the Bible and how to apply it to her life and act as a Godly young lady. She would like to obtain a degree in photography and use it creatively to encourage and bring joy to emotionally-broken youth.

Daisaly

Daisaly has been at HPCA since 6th grade. She will miss all the friends she has made and getting to play fun games together. She learned that God loves her no matter what and that He will never give up on her. She feels that HPCA helped her grow closer to Christ. She wishes to attend college and then become a therapist.

Gabriel

Gabriel has attended HPCA since 3rd grade and will attend Olney High School. His favorite moment was when he impersonated Mr. Deane during a skit in chapel. He feels that HPCA has prepared him for real-life situations, like creating a budget. He desires to attend Moore College of Art and Design to become a comic book artist.

Indira

Indira has been at HPCA since pre-k and will attend Community Academy of Philadelphia. She admires her teachers and the passion they have for teaching. She has grown in her confidence of her relationship with Christ and knows God will always be there for her. She wishes to study law enforcement.

Jarred

Jarred has been at HPCA since pre-k and will miss the kindness of his teachers and the challenging work. He appreciates being able to talk about life and give advice during class. He has learned that God created him in His own image and that He listens to his prayers. He desires to become a movie director, game designer, or animator.

Jordan

Jordan came to HPCA in 3rd grade and will attend Franklin Learning Center. He will miss the relationships he has formed with teachers and classmates. He feels that HPCA has prepared him academically and spiritually for the future and that he has grown in his relationship with Christ. He would like to attend college to become a music therapist.

Kacie

Kacie came to HPCA in 7th grade and will attend Charter High School for Architecture and Design. She will miss how the teachers treat the students like their own, care for them, and display Christ through their actions. She has learned that God can help you overcome obstacles. She hopes to become an architect in the future.

Luz

Luz has been at HPCA since pre-k and will attend George Washington Carver High School of Engineering and Science. She feels like HPCA has prepared her spiritually for the future and that she has grown in patience, faith, and love. She will miss the daily encouragement from the staff. She would like to become a pediatrician.

Maelynne

Maelynne has been at HPCA since pre-k and will attend International Christian High School. She appreciates how teachers and friends at HPCA always encouraged her to do better and push herself. She has learned that God can use hard times to help you grow closer to Him. She desires to attend college but is uncertain which career she will pursue.

Robert

Robert came to HPCA in 4th grade and will attend Imhoteop Institute Charter High School. He will miss Mr. Deane's "funny" jokes. He feels that HPCA has prepared him to study the Bible and that he has grown in his leadership abilities. He would like to attend college and then play basketball in the NBA.

"And this is my prayer: that your love may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight, so that you may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ—to the glory and praise of God." -Philippians 1:9-11
