

CONGRATULATIONS, GRADUATES!

On June 12th, our 17 eighth-grade students will graduate and move on to high school. Thank you for the part that you have played in their lives at HPCA through financial gifts, prayers, and volunteering. Please continue to keep them in your prayers as they move to the next stage of their lives.

AALIYAH

Aaliyah came to HPCA in 8th grade. She will miss all of her teachers who encouraged her to work hard. She felt that the environment at HPCA helped her draw closer to God. She has learned that He is always there for her when she needs help. After high school, she wishes to become a social worker.

AMIJA

This is Amija's first year at HPCA. She will attend John W. Hallahan Catholic Girls' High School. She will miss the support from her teachers and how they pushed her to do right thing. She feels that she grew academically this year at HPCA and learned more about the Bible from Mr. Hofman. She would like to be a dance teacher.

AYANNA

This is Ayanna's first year at HPCA. She will attend Little Flower Catholic High School for Girls. She will miss the teachers and staff and the fun events like the Race for Education. She appreciates how demanding HPCA is because she knows that the teachers expect the best. She wishes to study cosmetology in the future.

DAELYNNE

Daelynne has attended HPCA since pre-kindergarten. She will miss the teachers' humor and how hard they tried to help students understand difficult concepts. She has learned that God is not just present in the Bible, but all around her. When she is older, she would like to study law, then become a police officer.

DAVID

David has been at HPCA since pre-kindergarten and will attend Olney Charter High School. He will miss how the teachers always listened and gave encouragement. He was taught to respect everyone and to treat them with kindness. He has learned that God is just and always fights for His children.

FREDY

Fredy came to HPCA in 4th grade and will attend Cristo Rey Philadelphia High School. He believes that his teachers have prepared him for the future by teaching him which things will be most useful. He has learned that God is with him through all things. He hopes to study engineering after high school.

JORDAN

Jordan came to HPCA in 7th grade and will attend George Washington Carver High School of Engineering and Science. He will miss how HPCA feels like a family and how kind everyone is. He feels the quality of education has prepared him both academically and spiritually. He wishes to become either a math professor or a surgeon.

KAHLEY

Kahley has been at HPCA since 4th grade and will attend Academy at Palumbo. She will miss her friends and being on the basketball team. She feels prepared in math, science, and writing. She has learned that God is always with you, even in times of doubt. She wishes to master her skills as an actress in the future.

KASIB

Kasib came to HPCA in 6th grade and will attend W.B. Saul High School. He appreciates how the teachers give a lot of projects and essays because it has prepared him for high school. He loved being on the basketball team and getting a parade when they won the championship. He wishes to be an artist or an architect.

KEYIR

Keyir has been at HPCA since 4th grade and he will attend Academy at Palumbo. He feels that all the tests, homework, and projects have helped him know what to expect in high school. He has grown in his prayer life and learned how God can transform lives. He would love to be a professional baseball or basketball player.

LUIS

Luis came to HPCA in 1st grade. He will attend Cristo Rey Philadelphia High School. Luis will miss his friends and the fun field trips. He feels that HPCA has helped him learn to set deadlines and to give his best effort. He has learned how to better study Scripture. He wants to attend college and explore career possibilities.

MARQUESE

Marquese has been at HPCA since 7th grade. He has enjoyed his time on the basketball team and aspires to attend college on a basketball scholarship. He will miss the love that the staff pours into the students. He has learned a lot about God through Bible class and has developed a deeper relationship with God.

MAURICE

Maurice came to HPCA in 2nd grade and will attend Parkway Northwest High School. He feels that HPCA has shown him that he can do more than athletics and should give everything 110% effort. He has grown closer to God and learned to accept Him and trust Him. He wishes to go to medical school or become a psychologist.

RICHARD

Richard has been at HPCA since pre-kindergarten and will attend Cristo Rey Philadelphia High School. He has enjoyed the fun moments playing sports at HPCA like playing football in the park and being on the basketball team. He has grown dramatically in his relationship with Christ and knows He is always there with him.

SOFIA

Sofia has been at HPCA since pre-kindergarten and will attend Tacony Academy Charter High School. She will miss the advice from the teachers and how they treated her like one of their own. She knows that God is with her, even if she doubts. She would like to start her own pottery business or travel to South America to paint.

TYLIAH

Tylihah came to HPCA in kindergarten and will attend The U School. She will miss her friends and the fun times they had on field trips. She is thankful for the quality education she received at HPCA and for being in a place where she is able to share her beliefs openly. She has grown to see God as her Provider.

YASLIND

Yaslind came to HPCA in 7th grade and will attend George Washington Carver High School of Engineering and Science. She will miss the welcoming environment and the great teachers who taught her to work hard to achieve her goals. She has learned that God will always be by her side. She wishes to become a neurosurgeon.

"COMMIT TO THE LORD
WHATEVER YOU DO, AND HE WILL ESTABLISH YOUR PLANS."
-PROVERBS 16:3