

CONGRATULATIONS, GRADUATES!

On June 14th, we celebrated the graduation of our eighth-grade students as they completed their final year together at HPCA. Thank you for the part that you have played through financial gifts, prayers, and volunteering. Please continue to keep them in your prayers as they move to the next stage of their lives in high school.

AMAYAH

Amayah has attended HPCA since kindergarten and will attend Franklin Towne Charter High School. Amayah will miss the friendships she has made and how HPCA has prepared her to do taxes and write proper essays. She knows that God is always working on her. When she is older, she wants to be a professional tattoo artist.

ANNALIESE

Annaliese came to HPCA in 7th grade and will attend Northeast High School Magnet Program. She will miss the love she received from her teachers and classmates. HPCA taught her to push herself and never take the easy way out. She has learned to let God guide her to live like Him. She would like to be an interior designer.

EDGAR

Edgar has been at HPCA since pre-kindergarten and will attend International Christian High School. He learned that hard work matters and you need God first to get through. He grew in his relationship with God, especially through times of grieving. He would like to join the military, then explore acting or screenwriting.

HARISON

Harison came to HPCA in kindergarten and will attend International Christian High School. His favorite memories were the class trip to Wildwood and class party. He feels HPCA prepared him not only with education, but for hard times in the future. He dedicated more time to prayer and would like to start his own Christian music school.

ISAAC

Isaac has been at HPCA since pre-kindergarten and he will attend International Christian High School. He will miss the encouraging staff and his friends not going to the same high school. He learned that God loves him, even with his faults. He wishes to study civil engineering because he likes hands-on projects.

JASON

Jason has been at HPCA since pre-kindergarten and will attend Franklin Towne Charter High School. He loved when we met our Race for Education goals and Mr. Deane had to do silly things. He is thankful for how the teachers have prepared him. He learned that God is always there for him.

JAYDEN

Jayden has been at HPCA since pre-kindergarten and will attend International Christian High School. He loved the Race for Education and getting be with his friends. He learned to never give up on anything. He grew in Christ through chapel and teachers. He would like to play professional sports or be a real estate agent.

JEREMAYAH

Jeremayah came to HPCA in 1st grade and will attend Liguori Academy. He enjoyed reading The Outsiders. HPCA taught him a good work ethic and what to expect in high school. He learned that God is the King of Kings and forgives us for our sins. He would like to become a CDL truck driver, then try real estate and stock trading.

JEREMIAS

Jeremias has been at HPCA since pre-kindergarten and will attend International Christian High School. He will miss the countless laughs he has shared with the staff and hopes to continue that in life. He appreciates that HPCA taught him to plan ahead and care for his work. He has learned to put all his trust in Christ and His plan.

JESIAH

Jesiah came to HPCA in kindergarten and will attend Community Academy of Philadelphia. He appreciates the small class sizes at HPCA because he received more attention in his studies. He learned that God is selfless and wants him to be with Him. He would like to be a veterinarian because he loves animals and their behavior.

KAILAH

Kailah came to HPCA in kindergarten and will attend International Christian High School. She will miss her friends and all the funny moments. She feels that HPCA has prepared her to figure out new challenges that may come her way. She has grown in her prayer life and thanking God. She hopes to be a marine biologist or veterinarian.

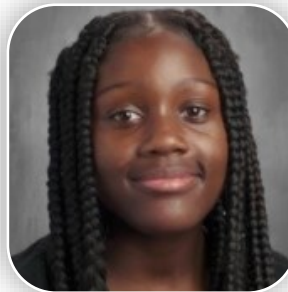

KYREE

Kyree has been at HPCA since 4th grade and will attend Philadelphia Electrical and Technology Charter School. He will miss the closeness of his class and the generosity of his teachers. He learned about God's greatness and how He spared us. He would like to study psychology and pursue his basketball dreams.

MAYA

Maya joined HPCA in kindergarten and will attend International Christian High School. She will miss how HPCA is like one big family and leading the praise dances at chapel. She feels that HPCA has taught her to love everyone. She has grown in her faith and in craving the Word of God. She would like to be an architect to share her unique creations.

NIJEEA

Nijeea has been at HPCA since pre-kindergarten and will attend International Christian High School. She enjoyed representing HPCA by playing basketball. She feels prepared mentally and physically for high school. She knows God is a Father, Friend, and her God. She would like to become a fashion designer.

SETH

Seth started at HPCA in kindergarten. His favorite memories include class trips and the fun they had together. He feels HPCA has taught him how to stay consistent and how his actions can affect others. He learned to live his life with God at the center. He would like to attend college and become a Chick-Fil-A owner or district manager.

YARALEXIE

Yaralexie has been at HPCA since pre-kindergarten and will attend International Christian High School. She will miss the fun theme weeks and teachers, especially Mr. Ross. She learned how loving and amazing God is and how she can pray to Him in times of trouble. She would like to be a criminal psychologist in the future.

I WILL LEAD THE BLIND BY WAYS THEY HAVE NOT KNOWN, ALONG UNFAMILIAR PATHS I WILL GUIDE THEM; I WILL TURN THE DARKNESS INTO LIGHT BEFORE THEM AND MAKE THE ROUGH PLACES SMOOTH. THESE ARE THE THINGS I WILL DO; I WILL NOT FORSAKE THEM.
